Dear Mr. Hamilton:

It is a pleasure to recognize Colbert Packaging Corporation for its commitment to the manufacturing industry in the State of Indiana.

The leadership of Tim Price in Elkhart and his team dedicated to “The Colbert Way” of servicing customers ensures that customers in the Midwest and throughout the country receive first-class, quality service.

Colbert Packaging’s long-standing history of manufacturing success is an important part of Indiana’s economy, providing jobs to Hoosiers and contributing to the vitality of our state’s economy.

I hope you will share my appreciation and thanks with everyone. I value their hard work and dedication to foster a successful business environment in our state.

Your success is cause for celebration and acclamation. I am grateful for companies like yours that are willing to take risks for growth and invest in the future of Indiana.

Best wishes as you celebrate this special occasion.

Sincerely,

Mitch Daniels
